Kanov Karlovy Vary

The KANOV business incubator is an example of innovative infrastructure with services covering the entire Karlovy Vary region. Its headquarters, or the KANOV BI head office, is in Karlovy Vary, and there are two other KANOV BI "branches" in the towns of Ostrov and Cheb, which have spaces suitable for holding training courses, lectures, workshops, larger formal and informal team meetings, company celebrations, etc.

The comprehensive KANOV Business Incubator project comprises innovative infrastructure and an environment to support innovative business in the Karlovy Vary region, to be gradually constructed in 5 stages. The project includes the construction of 4 operational halls and 2 administrative buildings in 3 larger towns in the Karlovy Vary region, with a total planned floor space of over 15,000 square metres. All 5 stages have now been implemented.

As part of its entire operation, the KANOV BI offers office space for rent, including all the necessary facilities, lecture rooms, co-working offices, semi-operational halls including loading and unloading ramps, as well as premises suitable for running a café/small restaurant or a bistro. In both Karlovy Vary and Ostrov nad Ohří, but also in Cheb.

ROBOTA

The new Robota creative technology workshop is a unique place. It runs a workshop where DIY buffs of all ages can make use of 3D printers and other state-of-the-art facilities in building 44 of the Tomáš Bata University in Zlín.

The workshop is open not only to students and graduates of the TBU Faculty of Multimedia Communications, but also to the general public, adults and children, basically to anyone who wants to make meaningful use of their free time. Robota is primarily a digital workshop; its basic equipment includes a 3D printer, a thermal press, a plotter, and an engraving and cutting laser. All the devices can be tested out at creative workshops for the general public, which Robota will launch when it opens.

In addition to workshops led by a professional, paid membership of Robota is also available, enabling members will learn to operate the devices themselves and thus use the machines to create anything they want at any time.

Telegraph

The Telegraph multi-purpose centre is only a few steps away from the main train station in Olomouc. Thanks to its thorough and meticulous renovation, the genius loci of the unused industrial building housing the telephone and telegraph factory has been preserved. An ambitious concept, which respects the original function of the place, not only by its name, but also by its mission, was created. Connection remains the primary goal of Telegraph: art and the public, live culture and art, or business and leisure.

In addition to a gallery, the project incorporates a comfort hub, meeting room, private boxes, multi-purpose hall for briefings and multi-purpose cinema space or luxury roof loft. Telegraph offers spaces suitable for private and corporate events, business meetings, courses of all types or accommodation.

The Telegraph building also houses a café and restaurant, which sources ingredients from regional suppliers. The restaurant serves up unique cuisine and an exceptional dining experience, offering savoury snacks, soups, desserts and weekend brunches. Telegraph is a business-social place, where they will jointly take care of you.

Envelopa office center

FreeWork is situated in a place locally known as Envelopa, which is very close to the city's historical centre. This central area is currently undergoing rapid development and can rightly be described as the heart of Olomouc. In addition to municipal and state institutions, it is home to several faculties of the Palacký University, the Moravian University campus and the Galerie Šantovka shopping centre.

Located close to the historical centre, it is easily accessible by public transport. It has excellent municipal transport access, with a direct road to the inner city ring road that connects to all the motorway feeder roads.

The building is also just a short distance away from Bezručovy sady park and the rose garden, which are part of the city's ring of parks and which are a haven of peace and relaxation on a busy day. There are dozens of restaurants, shops and the full range of services all within walking distance of the project.

Port 1560 (new for 2024)

The new cultural and social centre of Český Krumlov built on the site of the former Schwarzenberg brewery. Why Port 1560? Port means entrance, gate, harbour. And the date 1560? The year when beer was first brewed in the barbican of Český Krumlov.

Visitors can find 4 exhibitions: 2 with a guide, focused more on brewing technologies. 2 exhibitions without a guide, where visitors can take a look at the life of the townspeople at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries, the architectural development of the site and modern graphic works by artists from the Hollar association. All presented in a very interactive and fun way.

Opero

This building, which has had a rich tradition of meetings since it was first built in the early 20th century, located close to Prague's Old Town Square, is now home to Opero. A state-of-the-art centre for work, networking and social events, which meets the latest demanding functional and technical requirements in a stylish historical setting.

In its time, the Štenc house in Salvátorská ulice was the most modern printing house in Central Europe. It was a meeting place for leading cultural and society figures, where some essential Czech works of art were created. Opero builds on this history by offering state-of-the-art services for entrepreneurs, managers, creative minds and corporate and project teams looking for a work haven in Prague. Regular use can be made of its business hub services by choosing from packages to suit members' individual needs. Besides providing services for members, Opero has some spaces available for rent for business meetings, seminars, social events or conferences. There are five closed offices, two open rooms for work and events, six different meeting and seminar rooms, a café, an open atrium and terraces.

The Flow

The iconic Flow Building on Prague's Wenceslas Square is not only a fine example of contemporary original architecture, it is also a showcase of the latest sustainable technologies. The Scott.Weber co-working centre covers a total area of over 2,500 m<sup>2</sup>, including some wholly unique rooftop office spaces with a bistro and terraces with views of the National Museum, Prague Castle and the Prague skyline.

One major advantage of the unique Flow building, with its stunning 21st-century exterior and interior design, is the fact that it is located in the centre of Prague, with excellent transport accessibility. It offers customers fully equipped private offices, flexible or dedicated workplaces in a shared environment for members, event spaces and meeting rooms. The designer reception area and lobby make an exceptional impression as soon as you enter. The roof terraces with a 360° view of the city provide space for you to work undisturbed, hold meetings, relax, or enjoy sports and open-air events. Clients can also play pool in the game room, chill out in one of the many relaxation areas inside, eat and drink in the café and restaurant, or watch the lively scene on Wenceslas Square in peace from a luxurious massage chair.

One of the main goals of Lovo StartUp is to support creativity and connect individual fields as a single whole. The co-working space here is not only a shared office, but the entire LOVOŠ Cultural Centre, including the Lovo Café, the adjacent lounges, hall and club rooms. Individual spaces or the entire centre can be rented for joint meetings, workshops, presentations and larger conferences.

And they've got plenty to offer musicians and coffee lovers! A rehearsal room for bands and individuals is also available for rent, while the café brews up premium coffee and prepares refreshments using regional ingredients.

library hall - 70 people, LOVO theatre - 200 - 250 people, LOVO Café - 50 people + lounge for 6 people, CO-WORK - 8 people, START-UP - 10 people

LitoHUB – a space for work and personal development

During the day you work and make new contacts, and when the bell rings, you roll out your mat and get some exercise. That's how it works at the LitoHUB in Litoměřice, a space for creative minds, entrepreneurs, freelancers and anyone who takes an interest in their work & life balance.

It doesn't matter what field you're in, as everyone can find a place to work here. OPEN SPACE offers shared office space in an informal setting, with a high-speed internet connection and a relaxation area. In the afternoon and early evening, the space becomes a yoga hall, where you can work on your body and mind. Its variability enables the space to also be used for themed one-day or weekend workshops.

FOKUS, on the other hand, the second multi-purpose space, is more intimate and designed for more personal events - meetings, consultations, therapy, training or conference calls.

You can order coffee from the local roastery or home-cooked meals.

Open space – 40 people, Fokus – 8 people

flip-chart, whiteboard, projector, Wi-Fi internet

Galeriér - let your imagination run wild

Art unites people, which is why a haven for art lovers has been opened in Kyškovice near Roudnice nad Labem. This former hop dryer is now a unique space that you can use to get creative or hold exhibitions, workshops, meetings and openings.

Galeriér is an art studio with an exhibition gallery and facilities not only for artists, but also for students, budding creators or entrepreneurs with a creative soul. The space has a fully equipped corner for your work, overnight accommodation in the guesthouse and refreshments.

The location of Galeriér is very inspiring in itself, as it is part of a family farm, in the countryside by the Elbe River, not far from the picturesque town of Roudnice nad Labem.

The building also includes a shop selling farm produce and art, a kitchenette and sanitary facilities.

studio - 15 people, exhibition spaces – 165 m<sup>2</sup> and 94 m<sup>2</sup>

Wi-Fi, desks
