Traditional Beskydy restaurant

The Libušín restaurant and Maměnka hotel have been national cultural monuments since 1995.

Both buildings are preserved in the folk Art Nouveau style, designed by Dušan Jurkovič. Companies use this location not only for its excellent cuisine but also for the wide range of activities in the surrounding area: hiking, the Valaška Trail, and more.

In the restaurant, you can enjoy authentic Wallachian cuisine, spend time in the unique Jurkovič dining room, and stay overnight in the folklore comfort of the Maměnka hotel.

This is truly a unique place that will enchant and immerse you in the folklore of the Beskydy region. Corporate events often use transportation by car/bus to the upper parking lot or by cable car.

Červený Jelen Restaurant (Red Deer)

Located in Prague's New Town, the Červený Jelen restaurant features two separate garden areas. These inviting spaces offer a peaceful retreat in the bustling central city district.

The two summer gardens, named Celnice and Republika, provide ample seating and serenity. Guests can access the Celnice garden via an alley leading to V Celnici Street, marked by statues of red deer overhead. The Republika garden is accessible from the ground floor area of the restaurant known as Banka. Situated in the historic Špork Palace, which dates back to the late Baroque era, the building underwent numerous reconstructions, with the last one a century ago adapting it for use as a bank. Historical references are reflected in the culinary concept, names, and design of the restaurant spaces. The restaurant serves Pilsner beer from the largest tank tower in the Czech Republic. The menu is built around innovative interpretations of traditional ingredients, focusing on high-quality grilled meat. The outdoor seating, whether in the sun or shade, is the perfect spot to enjoy dishes and drinks from the original menu in a pleasant atmosphere.

Senses Garden Restaurant

Enjoy a quiet terrace with delicious food and drinks, overlooking the buildings and towers of the Strahov Monastery, just a stone's throw from Prague Castle and Petřín Hill, far from the bustling crowds. This is what Senses Garden offers its guests, located in the Lindner Hotel Prague Castle.

The hotel is situated near Prague Castle and Petřín Lookout Tower, close to many popular attractions. The surrounding atmosphere is further enriched by the nearby UNESCO architectural heritage site, the Strahov Monastery, to which the hotel historically belonged. Both the hotel and the Senses Garden restaurant are linked to various eras and traditions of the Golden City. Guests can indulge in hearty Czech cuisine, local specialities, and international classics. A highlight of the property is its large, beautiful courtyard terrace adorned with modern sculptures, offering an inviting atmosphere and daily barbecues during fine weather. The terrace also provides a festive yet cosy setting for culinary events and can be exclusively hired. Equipped with awnings, it's a perfect retreat from rain. Thanks to its central yet serene location and charming design, the hotel terrace becomes a pleasant harbour after city explorations and an excellent venue for outdoor social events.
