Author King of Šumava

Mountain Bike Marathon.

This cult biking event, Author King of Šumava MTB, commemorating František Šrait, is perfect for fans of long mountain bike rides. There are routes for experienced racers, as well as for recreational riders who want to enjoy a pleasant ride and enjoy the unique atmosphere of this race. Every year it attracts more than 2,000 mountain bike enthusiasts. It offers three routes of 45, 70 and 105 kilometres.

As always, it starts on the picturesque square in the historical centre of Klatovy. From there it continues along the trails of Šumava. It includes steep hills and even more challenging descents. The route will again feature plenty of cold fords. Varied courses, plenty of refreshments, great spots for spectators, a lavish accompanying program. The goulash and beer for all participants at the finish line is a legend in itself, and the evening will feature three bands at an open-air concert.

Predator Run Plzeň

Obstacles, running and adrenaline!

The "RUNS" are designed as urban races, focused mainly on running, with obstacles playing a fun yet often difficult role. Runners get to see some interesting places and enjoy the adrenaline rush.

The event is part of the Predator Race series. The competitors have to get over obstacles not only on land, but mainly in the water, enjoying water, mud and sand, jumping into the water and climbing. The race is held around the Great Bolevec Pond in Plzeň. Although the racers will cover more than seven kilometres, this race is still one of the easiest Predator Races.

It offers several categories, competing in elite, open and fun categories. There is also a children's race.

Šumava Ski Marathon

A weekend in the heart of Šumava.

The race leads through beautiful countryside, with facilities in Kvilda. As always, the race is held on both days of the weekend. The standard marathon and half marathon courses cover the usual distances, with both free technique and classic races. Competitors have the opportunity to test their strength against the local landmark - Černá hora. There's no need to worry, as at the top of this climb, everyone enjoys a great feeling of a job well done, not to mention the beautiful views. Otherwise, the racers will ride through classic but always appealing locations such as Horská Kvilda, Modrava and Filipova Hut'.

There are top-class services for the competitors, including a place to store skis and clothing, heated a changing room and a heated tent with hot food and ski-greasing service.

Anyone who wants to come along to the Šumava Ski Marathon yet not compete, can do an open run, i.e. a non-racing ski run. Those interested will have the opportunity to hire cross-country skiing equipment and take a trip around Kvilda. For those who don't want to ski at all, there will be plenty of interesting places around the track. At the start and finish, obviously, but there's also lots to enjoy at Horská Kvilda, Filipova Hut', the road crossings and refreshment stations. There are several opportunities to catch the racers on the track.

Horseracing and the Velká Pardubická

The Velká Pardubická steeplechase is probably the most important social and sports event hosted by the city of Pardubice. It has a tradition dating back to 1874.

When they hear the word Pardubice, many people think of the famous horse race. The Velká Pardubická is held every year on the second Sunday in October. This year will be the 134th year of this famous race, which is preceded by a total of 4 qualifiers. In order for a horse to race in October's Velká Pardubice, it must complete at least one of the four qualifier races on the Pardubice track and finish in at least 5th place, or no more than 20 seconds after the winner. That's what makes the qualifiers so interesting for the spectators. Boxes can also be hired for a truly unforgettable experience. They offer great views and comfortable seating. They also provide catering tailored to suit your needs.

Jizerská 50

Come and strengthen your team and toughen up a bit at the most famous Czech cross-country skiing race in the Jizera Mountains - there are several routes to choose from, not only for individuals.

The Jizerska 50 is a legendary long-distance cross-country skiing race held every year in the picturesque surroundings of the Jizera Mountains. This 50-kilometre race attracts thousands of amateur and professional skiers from all over the world. The JiJizerská padesátka is not just about sport; it also has a historical significance, as it was started in honour of a party of Czechoslovak climbers who tragically died during an expedition in Peru. The race has become a symbol of endurance and friendship, and its participants enjoy the beauty of the snowy landscape as well as the sporting challenge.

If you have some sporty colleagues, sign yourselves up for the T-Mobile Jizera Corporate Relay. The race is designed for companies that want to promote a team spirit and a healthy lifestyle amongst their employees. Participants compete in relays, where each company can form a team of four and compete on a three-kilometre route. Besides being a great sporting experience, the corporate relay is a good opportunity for networking and bonding amongst colleagues. The atmosphere of the race is friendly and motivating, making this event a great way to have fun while meeting other winter sports enthusiasts.

Běhej lesy (Run through the Forests) - Jizerská

Doing the Jizera 50 route just on skis not enough for you? Then the Jizerská race as part of Běhej lesy is the right race for you.

Běhej lesy is a popular series of races held in various woods and natural locations across the Czech Republic. The event is aimed at promoting a healthy lifestyle and a love of nature, and runners can choose between different distances, allowing even beginners to participate. Races often include side activities such as family runs, children's races and various competitions, making them a great opportunity for families, businesses and running enthusiasts.

The series has two running options for groups and corporate participants, one being the Tandem. This is a run for a man and a woman couple; the team splits to see who will run the longer part of the race and try to get the shortest time on both parts. The next race is the Slowmotion. Here the task is to get the largest possible group of runners together; the more colleagues you have, the higher you'll place - this run is about having the highest total of times.

ČT Author Cup

Over time, the ČT Author Cup has become the largest, most famous and most popular mountain bike event in Czechia. The race is intended primarily for the general public, but also regularly features some top MTB racers and other important sports personalities.

The ČT Author Cup is a popular cycling race held every year in the picturesque setting of the Jizera Mountains. This prestigious race attracts thousands of amateur and professional cyclists from all over the Czech Republic and abroad. The route, which leads through some beautiful countryside and challenging terrain, makes for an unforgettable sporting experience while putting riders' fitness and endurance to the test. The ČT Author Cup is also a social event, a chance for cycling enthusiasts to meet up.

The longer ČT Author Cup route also includes evaluation of the results of company teams, while there is no limit on the number of teams competing for one company. Each team can have a maximum of five members, with a minimum of three. Teams can be mixed, i.e. both men and women. The ranking of the teams is determined by the sum total of the times achieved by the first three members, and in the case of a tie, the position of the team's first competitor is decisive. The starters in the teams are also evaluated individually.

Poděbrady WA Race Walking Tour Gold Meeting

International race walking competitions featuring the world's elite are an important feature in Poděbrady's calendar and have a long history. This year marks the 92nd year of the event.

Poděbrady's history of race walking dates back to the century before last, and competitions have been held regularly since 1929. The Meeting is still just as good today, which is evidenced by the city's confidence in hosting the Race Walking Cup and the European Team Championships, which will be held here for the third time next year. Poděbrady's renown as a city of sport is also evidenced by the fact that the WA quality assessment usually rank the Meeting and the European Championship up there among the best.

The Poděbrady Walking organisers are committed to living up to "The Athletics for a Better World Standard" introduced by World Athletics in 2020, and to meeting the requirements of economic, social and environmental sustainability.

Visitors to Poděbrady can join an accompanying programme of activities in addition to watching the top walkers.

Gustav Havel 300 Curves

One of the best natural racing circuits for road motorcycles.

The Gustav Havel 300 Curves race is an international road motorcycle competition held in Hořice in the Podkrkonoší region since 1936. The name refers to the fact that after twelve laps on the Hořice circuit, the bikers will have ridden around a total of 312 bends. Since 1968, the race has been named after Gustav Havel, a prominent Czech racer, one of the world's elite, who was tragically killed in 1967. This race has seen not only the leading Czech racers compete, but also riders who have been successful in the European and World Championships. The races attract riders from around 15 countries and some 20,000 spectators each year.

Běhej lesy (Run through the Forests) Bílá

Take a cable car up and run along the ridges of the Beskids on an 11 km or 19 km route. Or enjoy a charity run with your colleagues...

An unconventional way to get to the start, by cable car, beautiful views of the Beskid Mountains on both routes, great organisation and lots of fun, the Běhej lesy Bílá race offers that and much more.

The village of Bílá itself offers a lavish incentive programme from hiking, cross-country skiing to a bike park and ski resort.

At the beginning of August, it hosts a regular running race, where you can either "do your own thing" on one of the competition routes or can join your colleagues to support a good cause: the Penny Charity Run, which will warm up not only the cockles of your heart, but also your running shoes and, most importantly, it's a chance to help those in need. The route is about 4-6 km long, and can also be walked...

During the event, you can book a tour of the new ropeway on Bílá, test out your new running shoes and of course enjoy a bite to eat in the refreshments area.
