

CzechRepublic
Land of Stories

Explore
the Czech Republic
in 3 days

186 miles

across the Czech Republic

3 day Itinerary

Day 1: Prague — Chateau Mcely

Day 2: Chateau Mcely — Kutna Hora

Day 3: Kutna Hora — Tabor — Cesky Krumlov

Day 1: Prague — Chateau Mcely
Region: Central Bohemia
Distance: 67km | 42 miles

Things to do in Chateau Mcely

- Spa treatments with their homemade natural cosmetics and essential oils
- Relax in the sauna and outdoor natural pool
- Drinks at the patio and bar
- Walk through the forest trails
- Eat at Piano Nobile, one of the top 10 restaurants in the Czech Republic
- Take a natural cosmetic class
- Under the Daisy Playground designed especially for kids and little princesses

Chateau Mcely

Ever wish you could live in or own a castle? The Czech Republic is the land of castles and chateaus, with over a thousand in the country you can live your wildest dreams and fantasies of living in a castle for a night a night or two in Central Bohemia. Chateau Mcely, a gorgeous 5 star hotel in a chateau surrounded by the St. George Forest in the small village of Mcely. Besides getting a taste of what royalty feels like you will also get a feel for what the Czech countryside is like.

Not only is this accommodation a unique luxurious option perfect for pampering yourself, but the chateau has a fascinating history. Chateau Mcely was badly damaged in WWII and left untouched for years until the current owners purchased and restored in 2001 curating beautifully themed rooms are each uniquely designed with antique furniture.

Nearby Activities

The Prachovske Rocks are a great afternoon activity just a 40 minute drive (37km or 23 miles) from Chateau Mcely and a part of the Bohemian Paradise Geo Park. Get swept away in the beauty of the area while walking through the labyrinth and maze of rock formations and viewpoints.

Day 2: Chateau Mcely — Kutna Hora
Region: Central Bohemia
Distance: 52km | 32 miles

→ Kutna Hora Accommodation

Things to do in Kutna Hora

- UNESCO Sites Church of St. Barbara and Cathedral of our Lady at Sedlec
- The eerie but interesting displays at the bone cathedral at Sedlec Ossuary
- The Italian Court, a museum about the national treasury and mint
- Sip on wine at the local Kutna Hora wine cellars
- Visit the Czech Museum of Silver
- Walk along the statues of saints along the Jesuit College on Barboska Lane
- Visit and shop at the small but incredible Chocolate Museum
- Get an adrenaline rush riding through the bobsled track in the forest
- Visit the oldest church in Kutna Hora, St. James Church
- Explore the GASK Gallery, a curated collection of Czech modern art in the former Jesuit College

Kutna Hora

The city of silver is one of the most grand, small cities just east of Prague. Kutna Hora is a historically wealthy city once home to the national treasury and mint and silver mines. You can experience a taste of the beautiful gothic architecture and magic that visitors love about Prague without the crowds.

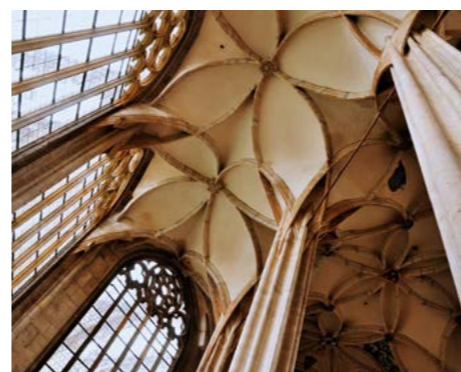

Admire the incredible architecture of St. Barbara's Cathedral, a gothic masterpiece that was completely funded and built by the locals that took over 600 years to complete.

Besides being an enchanting completely walkable city, Kutna Hora is also home to UNESCO World Heritage Sites Church of St. Barbara and Cathedral of our Lady at Sedlec.

Eat & Drink in Kutna Hora

V Ruthardce is a great option to eat lunch or dinner in Kutna Hora with an outdoor seating area with a perfectly framed view of St. Barbara's Cathedral. If you plan on eating in the evening be sure to make a reservation as this is a very popular spot in town serving up heaping portions of traditional dishes in its medieval style restaurant along with fresh, unpasteurized beer.

Day 3: Kutna Hora — Tabor — Cesky Krumlov
Region: South Bohemia
Distance: 91km | 57 miles

→ Tabor Accommodation

Things to do in Tabor

- Learn about the history with Hussites in the Old Town Hall
- Stroll through the charming Zizka Square
- Climb the Church of Lord's Transfiguration bell tower for a bird's eye view of the town center
- Tour the underground tunnels below the city from the Old Town Hall
- Visit the Kokoty Monastery
- Admire the adorable and delicious chocolate and marzipan at the Chocolate and Marzipan Museum

Tabor

The Czech Republic is full of small, adorable villages and towns dotted throughout the country. Tabor is one of them and an incredibly picturesque, quaint town worth stopping and exploring for a lunch break in the afternoon making your way from Central to South Bohemia full of history. Founded in the 15th century by a radical group of Hussites.

Today you can stroll through the weaving narrow cobblestone streets filled with colorful and charming Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque style buildings that make a picture perfect setting and learn about this town's historical importance during the Hussite movement.

Eat & Drink in Tabor

For a coffee break check out Kafe Havana which also has a full menu and beer on draft or if you're looking for one of the finest restaurants in the region check out Goldie Restaurant located in Hotel Nautilus right on Zizka Square.

Day 3: Kutna Hora — Tabor — Cesky Krumlov
Region: South Bohemia
Distance: 88km | 55 miles

 Departure to the next destination – the nearest international airports are in Prague, Vienna, or Krakow.

Things to do in Cesky Krumlov

- Tour through Cesky Krumlov Castle, the second largest in the country
- Visit the Baroque Castle Theater
- Climb the castle tower for an unforgettable view of the city
- Stroll through the castle gardens
- Visit the Cathedral of St. Vitus
- Check out the museum and exhibits at the Minorite Monastery
- Rafting down the Vltava River
- Visit the Museum Fotoateliér Seidel
- See the city from above in a sunrise hot air balloon ride
- Visit Egon Schiele Art Centrum Museum

Cesky Krumlov

If you've ever fantasized about living in a fairytale then a visit to Cesky Krumlov will feel like your dreams have come true. This incredible storybook village and UNESCO World Heritage Site is surrounded by the Vltava River weaving its way through the enchanting medieval town with the stunning and massive castle overlooking the entire town center on a hill.

This is the kind of place you visit and will pinch yourself to see if its real or a dream. The entire town of Cesky Krumlov is easily walkable on the winding cobblestone lanes and can be enjoyed in a few hours, especially if you plan on visiting in the late afternoon after the day tours have come and gone.

Eat & Drink in Cesky Krumlov

Křma v Šatlavské ulici is a fantastic medieval dining option with meat dishes grilled over an open flame. Hospoda Na Louži is an excellent choice for traditional Czech cuisine.

Apotheka is a great place for a cocktail situated in an old apothecary carrying on the theme today with its great drinks.

 Cesky Krumlov Accommodation

